

University City High School PTSA Board presents: 20-hour SAT Test Preparation at the University of San Diego

University of San Diego and The UCHS PTSA Board have collaborated to create a unique SAT Preparation course. This course will be available only to UCHS students. The cost per student is $235 for a 20-hour course that includes 16 hours of lessons and strategies as well as a 4-hour practice test. This represents a discount of approximately 70% off a typical USD prep course.

USD has been helping San Diego's students succeed on standardized tests for over 35 years. The program office and instructors are focused on providing the best possible learning experience. We want you to achieve your target score and be admitted to your dream school. This class will cover all sections of the SAT test. Our instructor will teach both content and strategies to help maximize student improvement.
